BAYLAT-Call for Proposals for New Scientific Projects (BAYLAT-Anschubfinanzierung)

- Aim: creating new and long-lasting scientific cooperation between Bavarian and Latin American partner institutions
- Eligibility:
 - collaborative projects of investigation
 - design of joint study programs
 - collaborative projects aiming at the improvement of lectureship
- Yearly call for proposals under <https://anschub.oasys.baylat.org/page/xhtml/index.xhtml>
- Funding of up to 6,000€ per proposal
 - Also includes: travel costs to Bavaria and accommodation for Latin American partners
- Open for all disciplines and themes and 20 countries in Latin America

FAPESP/BAYLAT-Workshop

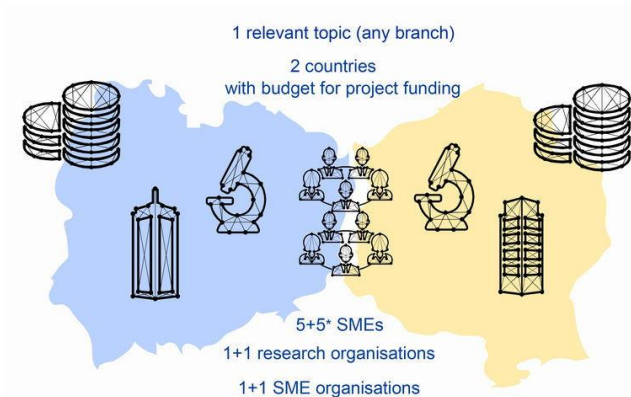

- Aim: increase and expansion of cooperation in science and research between the partner regions Bavaria and the State of São Paulo including funding of junior researchers
- Eligibility:
 - Scientific workshops, mobility of scientists, information exchange
- Yearly call for proposals
- Workshops take place in Bavaria and in the State of São Paulo
- Funding depends on workshop's conception
- Open for all disciplines and themes and researchers from the two regions
- Next call: first half of 2019 for funding years 2020/21

Collective Research Networking

- A CORNET project consortium consists of three pillars in each participating country/region:
 1. SME organisation, association or cluster (depending on national structures),
 2. research performer and
 3. SME user committee with a minimum of 5 SMEs per country/region (the required number might be higher or lower depending on national rules).
- The CORNET approach is bottom up, inviting SME associations or groups from all industrial sectors dealing with any technology to submit proposals. The only requirement is that the project idea needs to follow the rules of pre-competitive Collective Research.
- CORNET provides support in finding partners for your project idea.

* Participation of at least 5 SMEs per country/region. The required number might differ depending on national rules.

Brazilian partner:

The next call will be opening in June, with closure date on 25 September 2019.
